

The Black Panthers: Vanguard of the Revolution

The Black Panthers: Vanguard of the Revolution is a new feature length film by award-winning filmmaker, Stanley Nelson, documenting the impact and significance of one of the most well-known Black Power organizations of the late 1960s and early 70s. Join SJI, with local activists and experts, for a panel discussion after the screening.

Location: Gene Siskel Film Center

When: September 25, 2015

Time: 8pm | Ticket Price: $8

RSVP: siskelfilmcenter.org/blackpanthers

Enter Code: Social Justice

Panelists: Dr. Ahmad Rahman and Dr. Jane Rhodes

Guest Speaker: Dr. Ahmad Rahman,

Professor at University of Michigan- Dearborn, writer and activist. Dr. Ahmad joined the Black Panther Party at age 17 and spent 21 years in prison for Panther related activity. He is currently finishing a memoir, as well as an explanatory text based on his interviews with the late Kwame Ture (Stokely Carmichael) in Guinea and in Detroit shortly before his death.

Social Justice Initiative

Web | www.uic.edu/depts/oaa/sji